

Artist Jean Childs Buzgo inspires her audience to daydream . . .

Jean Childs Buzgo
American Artist - Yardley, PA

"Explorations," Jean Childs Buzgo's upcoming show at the Silverman Gallery, is her largest and most diverse to date. Inspired by a desire to take a decidedly new direction, Buzgo experiments with both technique and tone to cover a vast realm of seasons and subjects.

Buzgo wants her audience to daydream, a desire that's led her to more expressionistic work like Floral Array (shown below) which she describes as "a more abstracted vision that's from my imagination. I want my viewers to let their mind wander and get lost in my work." With punched in blossoms of peaches, yellows and reds, surrounded by an expressive background of turquoises, purples and greens, it delivers both a swirl of vibrancy and a sense of serenity all at once.

Buzgo's signature Bucks and Hunterdon County scenes perfectly capture the beauty of local landmarks, bridges, waterways, farms and gardens. Shown below, Phillips Mill Moonlight, is another example of Buzgo's more recent color palette . . . a profusion of blues, purples and greens, juxtaposed with intense yellows. A juiciness of tones capture the "rush and fury of creative energy bursting forth." There is almost a palpable hum and energy to these pieces. Buzgo's newest work is a glimpse into the many stories of her life, both real and imagined, reflected in this varied collection that runs the gamut from dramatic to serene. - Article by Susan Welsh, New Hope
